

Commissioners Proceedings

On October 28, 2021, at 8:30 a.m. the Board of Commissioners of Cavalier County, North Dakota, left from the Cavalier County Courthouse for a tour of roads, culverts, bridges and shops on the east side of the county. All members present, as well as Terry Johnston, Road Supervisor, and Lisa Gellner, Auditor. The commissioners drove multiple county roads, to include County 55 through the gorge. Terry Johnston, Road Supervisor, reviewed the locations identified by KLJ for possible culverts and drainage through the gorge. The Vang and Osnabrock shops were toured. The tour concluded back at the courthouse at approximately 1:30 p.m. No decisions were made during the tour. Any further discussion/decisions related to the tour will take place during regularly scheduled commission meetings.
